Commentary of County Weather Forecaster:

- Rainfall is expected to be heavier on Tuesday. Rainfall activity is expected to reduce gradually after Tuesday, but isolated thunderstorms may persist in few areas.
- Lightning strikes and strong winds may accompany some afternoon storms.
- Monitor river levels closely; avoid crossing flooded sections or swollen streams.
- Farmers are advised to consult agricultural officers before carrying out farm activities such as planting or spraying crops.
- Harvest and store rainwater safely for household and farm use.
- When lightning is observed, seek shelter immediately inside a building—avoid open spaces, doors, and windows.
- Bring livestock indoors to protect them from cold rain water, hailstones, lightning, and strong winds.
- Wear rubber-soled shoes and avoid wet areas during thunderstorms.
- Stay updated through local radio stations and county alerts for any changes in the forecast.

Note: There may be differences in amount of rainfall forecasted and amount of rainfall received.
