. KISII COUNTY WEATHER SUMMARY AND ADVISORIES

Overview

Kisii County is projected to experience light to moderate rainfall across all three rainfall zones from Tuesday through the following Monday. Morning precipitation is expected to be widespread, while afternoon and evening hours will likely feature showers accompanied by thunderstorms throughout the forecast period.

Temperature Ranges

- Daytime Maximum: Anticipated to range from 21°C to 27°C.
- Nighttime Minimum: Expected to range from 11°C to 17°C.

Advisories

- Motorists and Pedestrians Advisory: It is imperative for motorists and pedestrians to exercise caution while traversing roadways during this rainy season due to potentially hazardous conditions.
- Agricultural Advisory: Farmers are strongly encouraged to consult with the Departments of Agriculture, Livestock, Fisheries, and Cooperative Development for expert guidance on suitable agricultural practices tailored to the prevailing weather conditions.
- Safety Advisory for Residents: Residents should avoid seeking shelter under trees and limit outdoor activities during rainfall to mitigate the risk of lightning strikes.
- General Weather Advisory: The anticipated showers and thunderstorms may occasionally be accompanied by strong winds and hail, necessitating preparedness for sudden weather changes.
- Water Conservation Advisory: Residents are encouraged to implement water harvesting techniques to ensure a sustainable water supply for future use.

Recommendations

All residents are urged to remain vigilant and adequately prepare for any anticipated fluctuations in weather conditions to ensure their safety and well-being

Thank you.
