Commentary of County Weather Forecaster:

- Maximize Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday's moderate rains (5mm to 20mm) for watering farms, as this is the first significant rainfall after about one to two weeks of dry spell—every drop counts.
- Exercise caution during afternoon thunderstorms on Tuesday through Saturday - when thunder roars, seek shelter indoors, away from windows, doors and metallic objects. Lightning strikes remain the primary hazard even with light rainfall.
- Enjoy warmer, drier conditions on Sunday and Monday, with daytime highs reaching 29°C—ideal for outdoor activities but a reminder to conserve water as rains wind down.
- Farmers in Zone 1 (Teso, Busia, Nambale, Butula) have the best opportunity for rain, while Zone 2 (Samia, Bunyala) will see much less. Use this window wisely for farm activities before the dry spell resumes. Seek advice from agriculture extension officers.
