

1 High rainfall zones of Kilifi County

These zones are : Junju, Mwarakaya, Chasimba, Mtempeni, Mnarani, Tezo, Matsangoni, Sokoni Wards.

- These zones usually receive the highest rainfall in the county in the March-April- May rain season.
- The seasonal rains generally started in the last week of March and 1st week of April over a few places but dominated by light to moderate rains, dry spells and poor space distribution with several places having not attained a proper onset yet.
- Proper onset for most parts is expected within the 2nd week of April.
- The forecast for April indicates that the month will receive lower than normal rainfall amounts especially in the first half of the month.
- For the current week (Tuesday 5th April to Monday 11th April), the weather forecast is as follows:
 - Tuesday- Sunday: No rain
 - Monday: Light to moderate rains
 - Total weekly rainfall 0-10 mm.
- For the next week (Tuesday 12th April to Wednesday 13th April), the weather forecast is as follows:
 - Tuesday -Wednesday: Light to moderate rains(5-10mm)
 - Total rainfall 10-20 mm.
- Farmers are advised to consult the local Ministry of Agriculture officers for appropriate agricultural advisories.

2 Medium rainfall zones of Kilifi County

These zones are : Marafa, Sabaki, Kakuyuni, Ganda, Malindi Wards, Watamu Wards, Kaloleni, Rabai, Ruruma Wards.

These zones usually receive the moderate rainfall in the county in the March-April- May rain season.

- The seasonal rains generally started in the last week of March and 1st week of April over a few places but dominated by light to moderate rains, dry spells and poor space distribution with several places having not attained a proper onset yet.
- Proper onset for most parts is expected within the 1st and 2nd week of April.
- The forecast for April indicates that the month will receive lower than normal rainfall amounts especially in the first half of the month.
- For the current week (Tuesday 5th April to Monday 11th April), the weather forecast is as follows:
 - Tuesday, Wednesday & Monday: Light to moderate rains over few places such as Malindi, Kaloleni, Rabai, Ruruma, Mwawesa Wards.
 - Total weekly rainfall 0-15mm.
- For the next week (Tuesday 12th April to Wednesday 13th April), the weather forecast is as follows:
 - Tuesday -Wednesday: Light to moderate rains(5-20mm)
 - Total rainfall 10-25 mm.

- Farmers are advised to consult the local Ministry of Agriculture officers for appropriate agricultural advisories.

3 Low rainfall zones of Kilifi County

These zones are: Magarini, Adu, Garashi ,Jilore,Mariakani, Kayafungo, Mwanamwinga,Ganze, Bamba wards.

These zones usually receive the lowest amounts of rainfall in the county in the March-April-May rain season.

- The seasonal rains generally started in the last week of March and 1st week of April over a few places but dominated by light to moderate rains,dry spells and poor space distribution with several places having not attained a proper onset yet.
- Proper onset for most parts is expected to be between the 1st and 2nd week of April.
- The forecast for April indicates that the month will receive lower than normal rainfall amounts especially in the first half of the month.
- For the current week (Tuesday 5th April to Monday 11th April), the weather forecast is as follows:
 - Tuesday& Monday: Light to moderate rains over few places such as Mariakani, Kayafungo, Mwanamwinga & Ganze Wards.
 - Total weekly rainfall 0-15mm over few places.
- For the next week (Tuesday 12th April to Wednesday 13th April), the weather forecast is as follows:
 - Tuesday -Wednesday: Light to moderate rains(5-20mm)
 - Total rainfall 10-20 mm.
- Farmers are advised to consult the local Ministry of Agriculture officers for appropriate agricultural advisories.

4